He also serves on the Boards of the Cumberland County Foundation, American Heart Association, Downtown Development Corporation, YMCA, Dogwood Festival, March of Dimes, Fayetteville Symphony and many more.

Mac looks for every way to better our community, and I am truly thankful for his service, friendship and counsel over the years. He is deserving of this award, and I wish him continued success as he continues to be a great asset for Cumberland County.

Mr. Speaker, please join me today in celebrating Mac Healy on winning the 2018 Greater Fayetteville Chamber Realtor Cup Award.

CONGRATULATING CHIEF WARRANT OFFICER JOSEPH M. MINER ON BEING NAMED OFFICER OF THE YEAR BY THE NAVY LEAGUE OF THE UNITED STATES

HON. ELISE M. STEFANIK

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, February 23, 2018

Ms. STEFANIK. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Chief Warrant Officer Joseph M. Miner, who is being named Officer of the Year of the Coast Guard Sector Southeastern New England by the Newport County Council Navy League of the United States.

After graduating from Whitehall High School in Upstate New York, CWO Miner joined the U.S. Coast Guard, where he currently serves as the Sector Southeastern New England's lead USCG Marine Inspector. In this role, CWO Miner oversees commercial vessel new construction at three robust shipyards involving management of 14 simultaneous projects, valued at $100 million during the past year. He also played an instrumental role in paving the way for industry to achieve full compliance with U.S. regulations and international treaties. Considered a subject matter expert on offshore supply and jack-up vessels, CWO Miner also oversaw the outfitting of certificated purpose-built vessels to lay submarine cable and carry wind towers and blade equipment.

Truly committed to serving others, CWO Miner provided training for new Marine Inspectors who were working to qualify on mechanical systems. His strong mentoring efforts contributed to the new Inspectors' success. In addition to his work as Marine Inspector, CWO Miner engages his local community as a member of a local high school council and has provided advice to students as a guest lecturer at the Massachusetts Maritime Academy.

CWO Miner is truly a model Guardian, setting a wonderful example for others in the Coast Guard and providing an important service for Southeastern New England. On behalf of New York's 21st District, I want to thank CWO Miner for his service to our country and to his community and congratulate him on his well-deserved award.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH—DR.
PAULETTE C. WALKER

HON. KATHY CASTOR

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, February 23, 2018

Ms. CASTOR of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the outstanding work of a visionary and a dedicated leader of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., Dr. Paulette C. Walker during this year's Black History Month. Dr. Walker has dedicated her life to improving the lives of others through education and public service. Today, I am grateful to recognize her selfless dedication and honor her valuable contributions to our community.

Dr. Walker served as the 25th National President of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. A Detroit native she is now a proud Floridian calling the Tampa Bay area home since February 1990. Dr. Walker has served Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. on the local, regional and national levels for more than 45 years.

Dr. Walker was initiated into Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. through the Epsilon Epsilon Chapter in 1966 and earned her bachelor's degree in mathematics education from Michigan State University, master's degree in guidance and counseling from the University of Michigan, and her doctorate of education in administration and supervision also from UM.

Dr. Walker's research was on curriculum and instruction as well as administration and supervision with a focus on urban schools. She has also served as a classroom teacher, middle school and high school counselor, director of counseling, assistant principal and district-wide supervisor of state and federal projects. Her education, experience and expertise even combined to help her co-author a book, "We Can Have Better Urban Schools."

In July 2011, she retired as the Director of Undergraduate Programs and Internship in the College of Education at the University of South Florida.

Throughout her career, Dr. Walker received numerous awards from several professional, civic and religious organizations. These flowed from her hard work and belief that every person has a special gift that should be shared with the world. She is the recipient of the Hank Nuwer Anti-Hazing Hero Award; Ronald McNair Scholars Research Mentor Award; Ronald McNair Scholars Role Model Mentor Award; Outstanding Undergraduate Advisor Award from the University of South Florida; Certificate of Merit, Institutional Award, American College Testing Program and National Academic Advising Association; and the President's Affirmative Act Award, University of South Florida.

Dr. Walker is an active member of Mt. Olive AME Church in Tampa, Florida where she serves on the Trustee Board. Her other professional and community affiliations include: Board of Supervisors for Coahoma County; Member of the Council of Presidents—The National Pan-Hellenic Council; PACE Center for Girls Advisory Board; Moffitt Cancer Center African American Advisory Board; Mt. Olive Tampa Community Development Center, Mt. Pleasant Charter School Advisory Board. The State of Florida has recognized how valuable her counsel can be and appointed her to the Governor's Commission on African American Affairs. Also, at the state level she serves on the American Cancer Society's Hank Warren Advisory Board. Our neighbors also don't lack for her service and vision as she serves in Hillsborough County on the Literacy Volunteers of America Board of Directors, American Diabetes Association Board of Directors, Bible-Based Christian Fellowship Academy Board of Directors and Moffitt Cancer Center Community Council Research Board.

Mr. Speaker, on behalf of my neighbors in my hometown and indeed the entire Tampa Bay community where she has touched so many lives, we thank Dr. Paulette C. Walker for inspiring everyone to find their special gift and serve the world. I am proud to honor the "Devastating Diva of Delta Sigma Theta, Sorority, Inc.," Dr. Paulette C. Walker during this year's Black History Month for her uncompromising commitment to her country, state and community for more than 50 years.

CONGRATULATING LIEUTENANT COLONEL AND MRS. STEVE MILBURN ON RECEIVING THE 2018 GREATER FAYETTEVILLE CHAMBER BUSINESS OF THE YEAR AWARD

HON. RICHARD HUDSON

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, February 23, 2018

Mr. HUDSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Lieutenant Colonel Steve Milburn and his wife, Debbie, as the recipients of the 2018 Greater Fayetteville Chamber Business of the Year Award.

The Milburns own and operate two UPS Stores in the Westwood Shopping Center and at Fort Bragg that they opened after LTC Milburn retired from the Army in 1996. These UPS Stores have offered unparalleled service to our community through their experienced staff and ownership. LTC Milburn is not only a sharp businessman, but a bright student as well, graduating from the U.S. Military Academy at West Point in 1976 before serving as an Army Aviator. His hard work and determination allowed him to reach the rank of Lieutenant Colonel in the United States Army. LTC Milburn, I want to take this opportunity to thank him for his service to our country. It is because of men and women like you we are able to enjoy the freedoms that we have.

Over the years, LTC Milburn has dedicated his life to serving our community and country. He currently serves as President of the Board of Directors for the CARE Clinic, Head of the Finance Council at St. Patrick's Catholic Church, former President of the Board of the Armed Services YMCA at Fort Bragg, Outstanding Lieutenant Governor of the Carolinas Kiwanis District, and a member of the Kiwanis Club of Cape Fear. The Milburns look to better our community at every turn, and I am truly thankful for their service.

The Milburns are deserving of this award and I wish them continued success. They truly are a wonderful asset for Cumberland County.

Mr. Speaker, please join me today in celebrating LTC and Mrs. Steve Milburn on winning the 2018 Greater Fayetteville Chamber Business of the Year Award.
